James A. Loftin to Join Uniflight, LLC as President and COO

November 20, 2008

Uniflight, LLC, a leading Bell Helicopter Customer Service Facility (CSF), has named James A. Loftin to be its President and Chief Operating Officer. Mr. Loftin will also be joining the Board of Managers of Uniflight. Former President Gregory A. Aslinger will remain CEO of Uniflight.

James Loftin is a veteran of the rotorcraft industry, having begun his career nearly 30 years ago at HeliDyne, in Ft. Worth, Texas. Mr. Loftin also spent 17 years at Turbomeca in various positions in Quality and Operations concluding his tenure as Vice President of Operations, following which he joined Air Evac Lifeteam in West Plains, Missouri, as the Vice President - Aviation, where he was responsible for all Part 145 and Part 135 operations of a Bell Helicopter fleet consisting of 94 206L models, 2 206B model, and 4 Bell 407s serving a total of 84 bases throughout the rural Midwestern United States. Included in the 206L model aircraft are a 206L1 and a 206L3 which Air Evac Lifeteam contributed to the Bell Vision L4 upgrade project. Mr. Loftin is a graduate of Northwood University with a degree in Business.

Greg Aslinger, CEO of Uniflight, stated, "It is truly my pleasure to welcome James to Uniflight. The opportunities that are before us are significant, and I am very excited to have James succeed me as the President of our Company. He is uniquely qualified in many respects, both with his knowledge of the Bell product, as well as his appreciation of the stresses on the fleet operator. I could not be happier about this development."

Joseph Hawke, Chairman of Uniflight, added, "We are all very excited about the opportunity to work with James and to have him join the Uniflight leadership team. In addition to deep technical knowledge, James brings a wealth of complementary fleet operator and OEM relationships to bear. We are very fortunate to have him become a part of Uniflight."

Mr. Loftin said, "I am delighted to have the opportunity to work with the fine men and women at Uniflight who represent one of the most professional and responsive Part 145 repair stations in the United States. In addition, I am pleased that I will be able to continue my affiliation with the Bell Helicopter fleet, and I look forward to building on the Company's legacy of success as we seek to expand and grow the business."
